Safe tours

Despite the unprecedented period we are experiencing, the descent to land will be possible by purchasing one of our safe tours.

> COSTA TOURS ARE SAFER THAN EVER.

We have set out new procedures to ensure social distancing, thanks to limited group size and the use of disposable headphones. Additionally, our guides are tested before every tour and they always wear protective masks.

> SAFE BUSES.

Buses also travel with reduced occupancy to guarantee social distancing. Moreover, sanitization is carried out after every use.

Bari

OSTUNI

THE SASSI OF MATERA

ALBEROBELLO

The suggestion of our TOUR EXPERT

The trulli are not the only typical houses in the area. In Locorotondo, a circular-shaped village, you can visit the 'cummerse', small houses with sloping roofs.

Take an entire day to discover the best of Puglia: ALBEROBELLO AND ITS TRULLI and OSTUNI, THE WHITE CITY, with its alleyways and unexpected sea views. In Alberobello, every Trullo has its own story: ARTISAN STUDIOS AND ACTUAL HOMES of people in the area. Did you know that they still number over 400? Are you ready to try the FOCACCIA OF BARI, the ORECCHIETTE PASTA with Capocollo of Martina Franca and the local burrata? THE TRADITIONAL LUNCH is included.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
NEW TOUR - Discovering the «white» towns

Matera is located about sixty kilometers south of Bari. It is known for its two "Sassi" districts which form the ancient city of houses excavated into the rock of the Murgia plateau. Inhabited since Paleolithic times, the last tenants date back to the 1950s. Here they also shot Mel Gibson's film The Passion of Christ.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0116 - The sassi of Matera

The capital of "trulli", typical cone-shaped stone houses. There are more than 400 of them and they are still inhabited or used as workshops today. A destination suitable for families where you can closely observe the local artisans at work.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0161 - Alberobello. Tapsy tour for families

ORTIGIA

ORTIGIA, the old part of Syracuse, ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL INHABITED ISLANDS IN THE WORLD, awaits you with a succession of temples, churches, palaces and fountains. Not to be missed is the FOUNTAIN OF ARETHUSA which, according to Greek legend, tells of the love of Alpheus for a nymph. And in this location, which is "mythical" in every sense of the word, an EXCLUSIVE APERITIF, awaits you, with SEA VIEWS, naturally. A delicate soup of fresh fish en papillote together with the fragrance of Sicilian citrus, will give this splendid dish just the right flavor.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
1059 - MORE THAN A TOUR, A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME

ETNA AND ITS CRATERS

Called "a muntagna" by locals, Etna is the highest active volcano on the Eurasian plate. The road that leads to its summit crosses vineyards and valleys made of stratified lava. At about 2000 meters, just below the caldera of the volcano, there are the Silvestri Craters. Here the landscape is lunar, dominated by the reds of the rocks and the blacks of the lava.

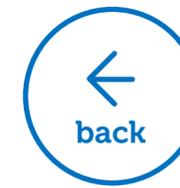

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0154 - Mount Etna and the Crateri Silvestri

TAORMINA

Ancient colony of Magna Graecia located on a hill 206 meters high. The most important monument of Taormina is the Ancient Theatre, a Greek-Roman theater still used today. From here you can enjoy a spectacular view of Mount Etna. For shopping, go to Corso Umberto, the main street of the city, where there are luxury boutiques, jewelers, clothing and souvenir shops.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0152 - Taormina and its enchanting historical centre

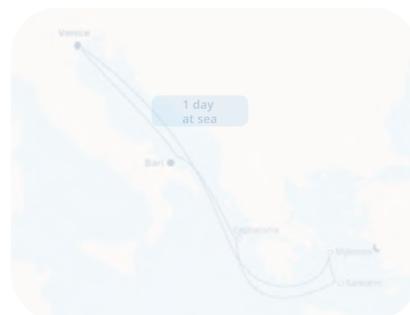

The suggestion of our TOUR EXPERT

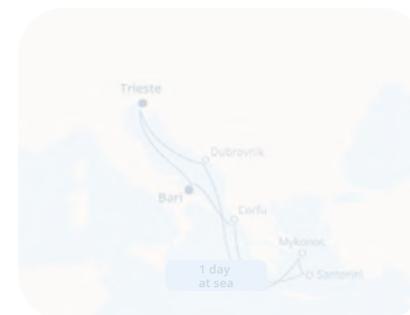

If you ask for an "arancina" they will tell you to go to Palermo. In Catania the typical Sicilian street food made of rice is called "arancino", ending in "o". Only here, in Catania, the form of arancino is conical instead of round.

IN KAYAK

It is the perfect excursion for enjoying the sea of Greece. BY KAYAK you will explore the coast around Kefalonia WITH OUR CERTIFIED GUIDE ISKGA (International Sea Kayaking Guide Association). And with every paddle comes a surprise: SEA CAVES, ARCHES, deserted beaches and limestone cliffs. All this, above the blue. Below, on the other hand, you will explore the depths while SNORKELING in the most beautiful spots.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
KAYAKING IN THE BLUE OF KEFALONIA

MELISSANI LAKE

An underground lake also called "cave of the nymphs" that you cross on board a typical wooden boat. There are stalactites, stalagmites and fantastic plays of light created by the rays of the sun streaming through an opening in the cave's roof as a result of an earthquake which caused the collapse of the ceiling of the cave.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
OOZE - Melissani lake and the village of Agia Efimia

SAN GERASIMO MONASTERY

Agios Gerasimos, as he is called in Greek, is the patron saint of Kefalonia. The monastery dedicated to him is located on the plateau of Omala 400 meters above sea level, in an area rich in vineyards where Robola, a local wine, is produced and can be tasted. The monastery is an example of Byzantine architecture. To get there you pass through a garden with 40 old wells dug by the Saint himself.

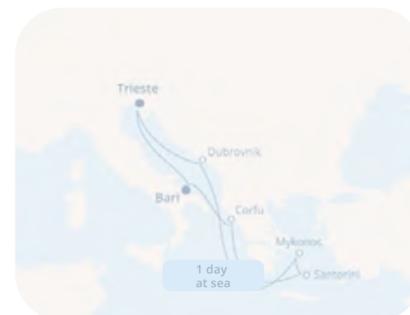

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0887 - Melissani lake, monastery of St. Gerasimos and Robola winery

7.30 HOURS

MARSAXLOKK

Marsaxlokk, or Marsa Scirocco, is a small fishing village with stone houses known for its market and luzzi, Malta's colorful fishing boats that have two painted eyes on the bow. The market in Marsaxlokk is the ideal place to find fresh fish and local crafts.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
03AP - Art, Cinema and Taste

MOSTA

A town inhabited since prehistoric times, it is known for the Rotunda, a large basilica with one of the largest domes in the world. Inside the church there is a replica of the bomb that fell on the dome but did not explode during the Second World War.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
1722 - A day in Mdina and Mosta

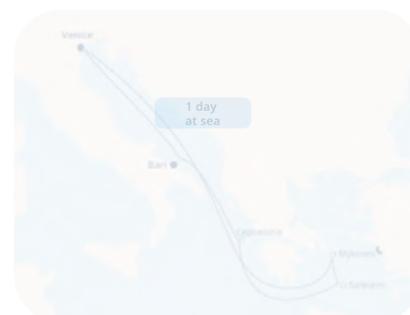

BLU CAVE

Located in Wied iz-Zurrieq, on the southern coast of Malta, it is an imposing rock formation rising from the waters of the Mediterranean. Over 30 meters high, it has a characteristic arched shape. In the interior you can get an up-close view of the coral formations that emerge from the sea. It is so named for the blue color given by the reflection of the water.

PARAGA BEACH

Along the southern coast of Mykonos there is a semi-hidden beach that can be reached on board a caique: Paraga beach. Made of fine sand, it is surrounded by trees where you can find some shade. The smooth rocks on the left side of the beach form small pools of sea water.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
03FP - Mykonos: a 2-day experience

ANO MERA VILLAGE

Ano Mera is the second most important village of Mykonos. It is located in the center of the island and at its peak are two ruined windmills. It is the ideal place to try the gastronomy of the island. The life of the village unfolds around the square in front of the Byzantine monastery Panagia Tourliani, dedicated to Our Lady.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0865 - Sights and flavors of Mykonos

The suggestion of our TOUR EXPERT

If you are looking for a typical snack, pass through the village of Ano Mera. Here you can taste the Louza, a particularly tasty sausage called "Mykonos ham".

PERISSA BEACH

A long expanse of black volcanic sand that extends approximately 7 kilometers. Mount Vouno separates it from Kamari, another volcanic beach. Perissa beach offers the most amenities on the island with straw umbrellas, taverns and restaurants. Here the sea is ideal for snorkeling.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
02FH - Flavors and colors of Santorini

NEA KAMENI ISLAND

A small volcanic island in the heart of the caldera of Santorini. The volcano is still active and can be visited. To reach it you cross a lunar landscape without vegetation made of black and reddish rocks. From below you can feel the heat coming from the ground.

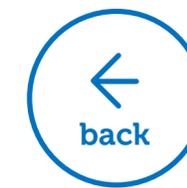

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
0926 - Walk on the slopes of the volcano

OIA VILLAGE

The village of Oia is located at the extreme northwest tip of the island of Santorini, on the edge of the high cliffs on the west coast. The village has a characteristic appearance with small houses full of flowers, churches with blue domes and windmills. Oia offers the most beautiful sunsets of Santorini: from here the view of the sun is not hidden by other islands, as in other places.

RECOMMENDED EXCURSION:
1919 - Beautiful Oia and a walk around Fira
